

HOW ABOUT STARTING A NEW HOBBY?

Now the weather is warmer it might be a good time to take up Bird Watching.

The RSPB has lots of advice about how to start, what you might need, which guides to use to help you identify different birds.

Birdspot.co.uk has a wealth of information including 10 Tips for Novice Bird Watchers. Their site is well worth a visit. It has information and ideas about every aspect of bird watching.

Just to wet your appetite. How many of these birds can you already identify?

Happy Bird Watching!
